Why RIGHTIO?

Local engineers.

Local response times.

National support network.

Whether it's an emergency or business as usual, you need a maintenance provider that can be there and get the job done right. Our engineer force is built up of local experts that can be there when you need them, and they're backed and vetted by our national support network to ensure your experience is first class.

Standard Commercial Rates

When you choose to outsource your maintenance needs to RIGHTIO on a more regular basis, you benefit from our standard commercial rates, providing you more clarity and consistency when you're contracting work.

Simple Commercial Portal

Booking and tracking new jobs is simple with our commercial portal. Simply log in the job details and follow the status updates to see when the job is in progress and fulfilled. Our portal can be made bespoke for your business needs and be designed to fit within your company branding. It's never been easier to get the job done right.

Centralised Customer Support Team

It's not just simple reporting and job tracking that makes RIGHTIO the best choice for your contract maintenance. Our Customer Support Team is here for you 365 days a year, 24 hours a day to ensure you and your customers are assisted with any need that arises. Our team is here to make things smooth and simple.

Emergency or Not, You're Covered

- Same day service before 12PM
- Next day service after 12PM
- Critical emergencies are prioritised

Our team is on hand and prepared to save the day when emergencies occur. We prioritise critical emergencies, and our team can talk you through immediate steps to take to minimise the damage and ensure your safety. Our experts are here to help you get it sorted.
